TOINTON FAMILY STADIUM

Opened in 2001 as the home of K-State Baseball, a renovated and expanded Tointon Family Stadium debuted in 2020 after completion of a $15 million project finalizing a two-year refurbishment of the facility that resulted in new bullpens, a spacious clubhouse and office building, chairback seating throughout the grandstand and a towering videoboard in right field.

The stadium's latest improvement came prior to the 2023 season, when a new artificial turf surface was installed utilizing the FieldTurf DoublePlay system.

The stadium is named in honor of Bob and Betty Tointon, the principle benefactors of the original $3.1 million structure, who once again demonstrated their generosity and continued support of Kansas State University and Wildcat Baseball as the lead donors in the project that all but gutted the original facility and constructed in its place a beautiful and functional new home for K-State Baseball.

The Tointon Family Stadium upgrades were started prior to the 2019 season with the installation of a padded outfield wall, construction of large Major League-style bullpens beyond the left- and right-field fences, refurbished dugouts with new benches and flooring, and the installation of LED stadium lighting. Immediately following the 2019 campaign, construction on the stadium's seating bowl, press box, suites and former clubhouse and office areas commenced. Over the next eight months, in conjunction with the building of Buser Family Park – K-State's soccer stadium next door – Tointon Family Stadium's exterior took on a fresh look utilizing the existing and distinctive "K-State limestone" façade with the addition of metal roofing and accent glass panels matching the soccer facility. The stadium concourse was expanded and covered for the comfort of the fans and a new ticket office, which serves both baseball and soccer, built between the stadiums. Inside Tointon Stadium, chairback seating was installed in all sections of the seating bowl, replacing the original chairs and aluminum bleachers.

Fans are entertained during games by the 44-foot high by 36-foot wide Edgerley Family Videoboard, while families enjoy the Sidlinger Family Playground – enclosed by protective netting – on the third-base side and a permanent K-State Super Store location on the concourse to purchase all their Wildcat gear. In addition, a new backstop netting system was erected and extended beyond the left- and right-field standing room areas for greater fan safety.

Rising above the third-base grandstand is the crown jewel of the project – a two-story clubhouse and office complex that more than triples the space of the original stadium for areas utilized by the student-athletes and coaches. Housed on the ground level that connects to the third-base dugout are the team spaces – a massive locker room featuring distinctive white lockers and unique ceiling lighting shaped as stitches on a baseball, a meeting room and video theater with lounge seating for 40, a players' lounge with three big-screen televisions and study tables, a dedicated fuel station for nutritional needs, a sports medicine and rehabilitation zone, and expanded laundry and equipment storage areas. Overlooking the field above the third-base grandstand on the second level are the coaches offices, conference room and coaches locker room.

To top off the project, the press and suite level was gutted and remodeled with all new finishes and furniture while the popular Giller Family Club was enlarged and the original balcony walkway enclosed to provide greater comfort for donors and fans.

Additionally, brand new turf and infield were installed in the team's Brandeberry Indoor Facility. The facility, which is located past the right-field fence, houses the team's strength and conditioning equipment including squat racks, benches, dumbbells, kettlebells and other equipment.

Continuing K-State Athletics' commitment to fiscal responsibility, the department once again depended on individual donors throughout Wildcat Nation to reach the $15 million to complete construction. Fifty-nine K-State families from 16 states stepped up to raise over $13 million four months ahead of schedule.

The project, led by BG Consultants, was funded without incurring any long-term debt and without any state tax or university funds. Any outstanding construction costs above the fundraising goal will be funded through department revenues and resources.

GLOBE LIFE FIELD

2013 BIG 12 CHAMPIONS

19WAYS

K-State head baseball coach Pete Hughes, entering his sixth season, installed 19 Ways when he came to Manhattan as a community service initiative designed to have a positive impact on the community on 19 different occasions. Despite the COVID-19 pandemic, Hughes and his team were still able to connect and support the community through signature events such as Shave for the Brave and the ALS Awareness Halloween Game.

Shave for the Brave culminates the program's fundraising campaign for College Baseball Vs. Cancer to benefit the Pediatric Brain Tumor Foundation. The Wildcats are three-time defending national fundraising champions, raising over $93,000 in that span. Last fall, K-State's players and coaches raised $38,019 – nearly $10,000 more than any other college baseball program.

"I love it because it tells me I have the right guys in my clubhouse," Hughes said. "Kids that care about the right things. Kids that aren't entitled and feel truly privileged to have their health and get to play baseball at a great university. To be proactive and raise that amount of money in back-to-back-back years, speaks volumes."

This season's Shave for the Brave is scheduled for Sunday, November 7 following the finale of the annual Fall World Series at Tointon Family Stadium.

Another marquee event is the ALS Awareness Halloween Game, scheduled for Saturday, October 30. The players and coaches dress in costume for a fun, entertaining game of baseball while also raising money for ALS. Fans are encouraged to come in costume and support a worthy cause.

The 19 Ways program is named in honor of his late mother, Alice, whose favorite number was 19. For K-State student-athletes and staff, this is a platform to give back to the Manhattan community that gives such tremendous support throughout the course of the year.

Hughes developed the program while service as head coach at Virginia Tech in 2009 and continued the initiative at Oklahoma. Now, several teams across the country have adopted 19 Ways, including Notre Dame, Northern Illinois, Northeastern and Virginia Tech, among others.

Hughes encourages members of the community to send suggestions on how the K-State baseball program can help organizations or individuals in the Manhattan area. Please send requests and suggestions to K-State director of baseball operations Ryan Connolly at rconnolly@kstatesports.com.

4x BACK-TO-BACK-TO-BACK-TO-BACK NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

2020	$38,019
2019	$28,742
2018	$26,293

“At Kansas State, our student-athletes will be privileged - not entitled. We will be extremely active in our great community and our program will make a positive impact on someone or an organization in the Manhattan area on 19 different occasions every year. It is an honor to the selfless and charitable life that my mother led to now have her legacy attached to another program and community.”

CAREER

Pete Hughes was named the 21st head baseball coach in K-State history on June 8, 2018.

Hughes, who enters his sixth season at the helm of the Wildcats baseball program, has a proven track record of setting new standards of excellence, has compiled a career record of 785-608-3 (.562) in 26 seasons as a head coach. He began his head coaching career at Trinity University (1997-98) while also serving as the skipper at Boston College (1999-2006), Virginia Tech (2007-13) and Oklahoma (2014-17). His 785 career victories rank first among active Big 12 head coaches.

Twice named both the New England Coach of the Year and BIG EAST Coach of the Year, as well as the 2000 American Baseball Coaches Association Northeast Region Coach of the Year, Hughes owns a well-deserved reputation as a relentless worker, tireless recruiter, and charismatic leader.

In 26 seasons as a head coach, Hughes' teams have finished .500 or better 23 times while he has overseen 84 former student-athletes selected in the Major League Baseball Draft, including 21 taken in the first 10 rounds after Nick Goodwin was taken in the seventh round by the Toronto Blue Jays in the 2023 MLB Draft.

AT K-STATE (2019-PRES.)

In five seasons as the head coach of the Wildcats, Hughes has put together a 133-116 (.534) overall record and has led the Cats to three consecutive runs in the Phillips 66 Big 12 Championship semifinals.

Last season, K-State turned in a 35-24 mark, its highest win total since posting 45 in 2013, including a program record 14 road victories. Hughes guided the Wildcats to their first Big 12 series sweep since 2013 with the program's first home sweep over Oklahoma since 1990 along with the highest scoring game in series history against KU with K-State winning 21-18.

The 2023 team was one of just three teams in the country that walked over 300 times, hit over 75 home runs, and stole over 100 bases. Offensively, his team batted .270 as a team and averaged just under seven runs per game and hit 77 home runs. In the past three seasons, the Cats have registered the top three home run marks in school history - 89 (2021), 84 (2022), and 77 (2023). Three players had double figure home runs led by Roberto Pena with 15 to tie second in the single-season records. The Cats discipline at the plate generated 340 walks which marked the first 300-plus season since 1997.

At the 2023 Phillips 66 Big 12 Baseball Championship, Hughes led the Cats to their first conference tournament shutout since 1976 in a 7-0 defeat over No. 20 Texas, before taking down school rival KU to advance to the semifinals. Seven players received All-Big 12 recognition with Tyson Neighbors, Owen Boerema, Nick Goodwin, Kaelen Culpepper, Brady Day, Brendan Jones, and Raphael Pelletier.

Neighbors became just the second Wildcat in school history to earn consensus All-American honors and was a First Team All-Big 12 selection and led the league with 11 saves. He set school season class records in saves along with a record setting 1.85 ERA (10 ER, 48.2 IP) as a sophomore pitcher. He also broke the program's TrackMan-era pitch velocity record at 99-mph in the series opening win against No. 14 Texas Tech (April 28).

Neighbors was named NCBWA Stopper of the Year Finalist as he held opponents to a .135 batting average in 25 outings with 86 strikeouts. The Royse City, Texas product was one of just two relievers from the Big 12 to rank in the Top 10 in total strikeouts in league standings.

In 40 games, Culpepper turned in a career-best slash line of .325/.423/.576 with 10 home runs and 41 RBI. He was just one of three Wildcats to reach double digit homers while his slugging percentage led the Cats' offense and was second in batting average.

Culpepper and Neighbors became just the second and third players in school history to compete for Team USA as they each received an invitation to the Collegiate National Team Training Camp. The duo earned positions on Team USA to compete against Chinese Taipei and Japan. A two-time All-Big 12 Honorable Mention selection, Culpepper was the top slugger for Team USA last summer as he led the Red, White, and Blue with a .471 batting average and slugging percentage of .853. In four appearances, Neighbors allowed just three hits with four strikeouts during his 3 2/3 innings in relief for Team USA. He made two appearances during the national training camp where he struck out five batters during two hitless innings.

Goodwin was named a Brooks Wallace Award Semifinalist by the College Baseball Foundation, which recognizes the nation's top shortstop. The Overland Park native, who was one of three players from the Big 12 to make list, was the third Wildcat to be named a semifinalist joining Drew Biery in 2009 and Austin Fisher in 2013. Goodwin started in all 173 games at shortstop since taking the field in 2021, totaling 33 career home runs, producing double figure blasts during each season.

Two players were selected to the MLB's First-Year Player Draft with Goodwin (Toronto Blue Jays - 7th round (No. 214 overall)) and Day (Atlanta Braves - 12th (No. 369 overall)). Goodwin became the fifth Wildcat to be picked in the top 10 rounds over the last five seasons. The duo increases Hughes' career draft total to 84 over his 25-year career, including 10 while at K-State.

HUGHES' 785 TOTAL
WINS IS THE MOST BY ANY BIG 12 HEAD COACH

In 2022, Hughes guided the Wildcats to their second consecutive appearance in the league postseason tournament and third in the last four years. The Cats claimed four victories over Top 10 teams including a pair of series wins over No. 7 Texas.

The Wildcats bullpen registered the second-best performance in school history with 540 strikeouts, averaging 9.6 strikeouts-per-nine innings. Hughes has overseen three of the top five strikeout seasons in program history after a program record 541 in 2021 and 448 in 2019.

On April 2, 2022, Dylan Phillips launched two home runs against Oklahoma State to become K-State's all-time home run leader, breaking the previous mark that stood since 1997. Phillips hit 13 home runs in his senior campaign to mark his third double-digit home run season, totaling 44 in his career.

Three players were selected to the MLB's First-Year Player Draft with Phillips (Los Angeles Angels), Blake Adams (Colorado Rockies) and Dominic Johnson (Detroit Tigers). Phillips became the fourth Wildcat to be picked in the top 10 rounds over the last four seasons.

During his third season, Hughes' Wildcats claimed series off a pair of top-10 teams in No. 3 Texas Tech and No. 5 TCU, upping his K-State total to four series victories against ranked opponents. The Cats totaled six wins over top-10 squads during the 2021 campaign, which are the most on record in K-State history. Hughes has totaled 13 victories over top-25 teams while at K-State.

His 2021 team saw records fall both at the plate and on the mound. The Wildcat offense launched a program-record 89 home runs, smashing the previous mark of 75 set in 1997. Dylan Phillips matched the single-season home run record with 16 while Zach Kokoska tallied 15 to lead four Wildcats with double-digit homers. The 89 home runs ranked 11th in the country.

Freshman infielder Nick Goodwin connected for 10 home runs during his freshman all-America season, tying Phillips' freshman record set in 2019.

The pitching staff racked up 541 strikeouts, breaking the previous record by nearly 100 (453) while the 9.9 strikeout-per-nine innings smashed the previous mark of 8.6 set in 1969.

Friday night starter Jordan Wicks produced a single-season record 118 punchouts in 2021 on his way to becoming K-State's all-time strikeout leader, finishing his career with 230 strikeouts in less than two and a half seasons. Wicks became the first Wildcat to ever be selected in the first round of the Major League Baseball First-Year Player Draft, as he was taken by the Chicago Cubs with the 21st overall pick. Wicks was among four Cats who heard their names called during the 2021 MLB Draft, all within the first 15 rounds. Right-handed pitcher Carson Seymour was taken by the New York Mets in the sixth round, outfielder Zach Kokoska was selected in the 10th round by the Colorado Rockies and Eric Torres was picked by the Los Angeles Angels in the 14th round.

Hughes' second season came to a screeching to a halt in 2020 due to the COVID-19 pandemic after just 17 games. K-State had won seven of its last nine games, including taking three of four during a road series at perennial power Stanford.

Over 17 games, the Wildcat pitching staff ranked sixth in the nation in ERA (2.07), fifth in WHIP (1.01) and fourth in hits per nine innings (5.6). The Cats were one of just two teams in the country to allow only one home run during the season.

Wicks, the 2019 Big 12 Freshman of the Year and 2021 Preseason Big 12 Co-Pitcher of the Year, started the 2020 season without allowing an earned run in his first 24 2/3 innings. The lefty finished the season with a 0.35 ERA, best among Big 12 starters and 10th among all pitchers in the nation.

Offensively, K-State hit 13 home runs in 17 games, led by five from Phillips. Phillips, along with Terrence Spurlin, led the club with 18 RBI. Over the final nine games, K-State averaged 8.7 runs per game while launching nine home runs with a team average of .327.

In his first season at the helm of the Wildcats, Hughes led K-State to a berth in the 2019 Big 12 Championship - its first conference postseason bid since 2016. K-State finished with a 25-33 record (8-16 Big 12), including series victories over then-No. 14 Texas and No. 19 TCU.

WHAT THEY'RE SAYING ABOUT PETE HUGHES

" I couldn't be happier for Pete Hughes and his family. He sacrificed a lot to join our program and made a huge impact here at Georgia. Kansas State is getting one heck of a baseball coach and a better person. They are getting a coach that will work tirelessly with their players on and off the field and will help bring the Wildcat baseball program back to prominence.

- Georgia Head Coach Scott Stricklin

" I have known Pete Hughes since he was the coach at Boston College and I was at Notre Dame. During that time, I grew to respect Pete as an outstanding coach, competitor, and molder of young men. His teams have always played with great passion and energy. The players at Kansas State will be taught to play the game the right way and will represent the university with great class - because Pete will demand nothing less. He is a tireless worker in recruiting as well as working with the players on the field. He will not stop until the job is done.

- Former LSU Head Coach Paul Mainieri

" Pete Hughes is an outstanding coach, recruiter and leader. His teams are always fundamentally sound and relentless competitors. I am so happy for him and his family.

- Georgia Tech Head Coach Dan Hall

" I got to know Pete during his time at Boston College and Virginia Tech where he established himself as a program developer, proven leader in player development, terrific recruiter and most importantly a friend. I'm happy for him and the Kansas State baseball community. This is a great hire and I look forward to seeing the success he'll have in Manhattan.

- Virginia Head Coach Brian O'Connor

Hughes' initial campaign held many highlights, including seven victories over top-25 opponents, K-State's highest total since 2011 and more than the previous three seasons combined. The Cats' consecutive series wins over the Longhorns and Horned Frogs marked the first time in program history K-State defeated ranked teams in consecutive series.

K-State's offense launched 54 home runs in 2019, its highest total since the 2009 season. Chris Ceballos and Phillips each hit 10 homers, as Phillips broke a K-State freshman record that stood since 1994. The Wildcat offense produced a stretch of 14 consecutive games with at least one home run - the program's longest in the Big 12 era and the longest of any Division I program during the 2019 season.

On the mound, Wicks took home Big 12 Freshman of the Year honors and went on to be named a 2019 Freshman All-America by DIBaseball.com and Collegiate Baseball. He became just the second Wildcat to earn conference freshman-of-the-year accolades and first since 2013 (Jake Matthys). Wicks broke program freshman records with 84 2/3 innings pitched and 86 strikeouts, both of which had stood since 1973.

The K-State pitching staff racked up 448 strikeouts, the third-highest single-season total in program history and just four shy of the all-time record. The Cats tossed consecutive road shutouts (at Texas on April 14, at Nebraska on April 16) - the first consecutive shutouts since 2008 and back-to-back road shutouts since the 1967 season.

Wicks was one of five Wildcats to earn All-Big 12 accolades at the end of the 2019 season, joined by Griffin Hassall (Freshman), Zach Kokoska (Honorable

Hughes has made a name for himself within the community throughout his career, starting with his 19 Ways Foundation which he has taken with him at every coaching stop. During each of his four fall seasons at K-State, the Wildcats have led the country in money raised for the annual College Baseball Vs. Cancer campaign, the signature fundraising campaign of the Pediatric Brain Tumor Foundation.

The Wildcats raised over $38,000 during both the 2020 and 2021 fall seasons, claiming their fourth consecutive national fundraising title. K-State players and staff have combined to raise over $130,000 to help combat childhood cancer in Hughes' time in Manhattan. While at Oklahoma, his teams raised over $80,000 to fight childhood cancer through the Vs. Cancer Foundation and the OU Children's hospital.

Following the 2018-19 academic year, Hughes' team earned the Wildcat Cup Trophy at the Powercat Choice Awards, voted on by the Student-Athlete

Advisory Committee (SAAC) for excellence in the five core area of student-athlete well-being: academics, athletics, career, personal and service.

AT GEORGIA (2018)

Hughes came to Manhattan after spending the 2018 season at the volunteer assistant coach at Georgia, where he helped the Bulldogs earn a national seed in the NCAA Tournament. Primarily working with the team's infielders, Hughes elevated UGA's defense from the bottom of the SEC in 2017 to 10th-best in the nation in his one season in Athens.

AT OKLAHOMA (2014-17)

In 2017, the Sooners registered a 35-24 mark and advanced to the NCAA Tournament as a No. 2 seed in the Louisville Regional. Hughes collected a 128-1074-1 (.544) record in four seasons at the helm of the Sooners.

In his final season as the OU skipper, Hughes tutored 10 players that were honored with Big 12 annual awards – the most in program history – including Brylie Ware who was named the Big 12 Co-Newcomer of the Year and earned a spot on the All-Big 12 First Team along with outfielder Steele Walker.

AT VIRGINIA TECH (2007-13)

Inheriting a Virginia Tech club in 2007 that had not reached the NCAA Tournament since 2000, Hughes went on to lead the Hokies to five straight 30-win seasons, including a pair of 40-win seasons that culminated with berths in the NCAA Tournament in 2010 and 2013, the latter marking the school's first-ever selection as a regional host site. Hughes compiled a 222-174 (.561) record in seven seasons at Virginia Tech.

AT BOSTON COLLEGE (1999-2006)

Hughes produced an even more remarkable turnaround at Boston College, as he took over a program that had averaged just 13 wins a year over the previous 35 seasons. The Golden Eagles finished 17-23-1 the year prior to his arrival in 1998 and, two seasons later, the team registered an 18-game improvement as it finished 35-20 and qualified for the program's second-ever appearance in the BIG EAST Tournament. In 2005, he guided BC to a school-record 37 victories.

Averaging 31 wins a season while at Boston College, Hughes owned a career mark of 250-181-2 (.580) as the Eagles' skipper. He coached 37 all-conference selections while at Boston College, including Jared McGuire who was named 2005 BIG EAST Player of the Year.

PLAYING CAREER

Hughes is a 1990 graduate of Davidson College where he played third base on the baseball team and quarterback for the Wildcats' football team. He was captain of the baseball team as a senior and graduated that year with a Bachelor of Arts in sociology/anthropology.

Hughes began his coaching career at Hamilton College in New York in 1990-91, serving as an assistant in football and was the top assistant and recruiting coordinator for baseball. He continued in that dual role at Northeastern University in Boston from the fall of 1991 until the spring of 1996 when he landed the head baseball coaching position at Trinity.

PERSONAL

A native of Brockton, Massachusetts, Hughes and his wife Debby have five children: Thomas, Hal, Dominic, Grace and P.J. Thomas finished his collegiate career at K-State in 2019 after also playing at Oklahoma and is currently the team's assistant coach. Dom is an outfielder at K-State and Hal, an infielder, finished his career at Rice in 2022, while P.J. is committed to Army.

COACHING EXPERIENCE

- K-State, Assistant Coach (2019-pres.)

Austin Waters was elevated to the Associate Head Coach on August 29, 2023.

Wates was hired by head coach Pete Hughes as assistant baseball coach on June 22, 2018. In his role, Wates' primary focus is on the Wildcat hitters, outfielders, and baserunners in addition to recruiting responsibilities.

In five seasons under the guidance of Wates, K-State's offense has turned in four of the top eight seasons in terms of total home runs in program history, including a single-season record 89 in 2021. The 89 bombs ranked 11th in the nation and shattered the previous record of 75 set in 1997.

Last season, Wates helped K-State turn in a 35-24 mark, its highest win total since posting 45 in 2013, including a program record 14 road victories. Wates' offense generated top 10 performances in five K-State offensive categories: home runs (77 – 3rd), stolen bases (114 – 5th), walks (340 – 3rd), sacrifice flies (34 – T-4th), and runs batted in (379 – 9th). The 2023 team was one of just three teams in the country that walked over 300 times, hit over 75 home runs, and stole over 100 bases. The Wildcats batted .270 as a team and averaged just under seven runs per game and hit 77 home runs. The Wildcats 340 walks ranked 13th in the final Division I standings, including five straight weeks as the national leader from March 22 to April 24, while finishing 19th in stolen bases.

In the past three seasons, the Cats have registered the top three home run marks in school history – 89 (2021), 84 (2022), and 77 (2023). Three players had double figure home runs led by Roberto Pena, who tied second in the single-season records with 15, followed by Nick Goodwin (12) and Kaelen Culpepper (10). The Cats discipline at the plate generated 340 walks which marked the first 300-plus season since 1997.

In 2022, the Wildcats knocked out the second-most home runs in school history with 84 which ranked third in the league and 39th nationally. K-State hit 36 home runs in the final 25 games of the season while 14 different players went yard at least once on the year. Twenty-seven of K-State's 84 homers were game-tying or go-ahead home runs, led by Nick Goodwin with six.

On April 2, 2022, Dylan Phillips launched two home runs against Oklahoma State to become K-State's all-time home run leader, breaking the previous mark that stood since 1997. Phillips hit 13 home runs in his senior campaign to mark his third double-digit home run season, totaling 44 in his career. Phillips was one-of-three players last season selected in the MLB First-Year Player Draft and was picked in the eighth round of by the Los Angeles Angels.

In his fourth season with K-State, Phillips equaled the single-season record with 16 home runs while Zach Kokoska was one behind with 15, as four Wildcats reached double-digit homers. Freshman Nick Goodwin's 10 home runs tied Phillips for the freshman single-season mark.

The long ball was a major reason K-State was able to claim series victories over No. 3 Texas Tech and No. 5 TCU on their way to picking up six top-10 wins during the 2021 season. The Cats finished with a 34-23 record, their highest win total since the 2013 Big 12 championship season.

Kokoska was one of four Wildcats chosen in the 2021 Major League Baseball First-Year Player Draft, as the outfielder was selected by the Colorado Rockies in the 10th round.

Over 17 games in a pandemic-shortened 2020 season, K-State hit 13 home runs, led by five from Phillips. Phillips, along with Terrence Spurlin, led the club with 18 RBI. Over the final nine games, K-State averaged 8.7 runs per game while launching nine home runs with a team average of .327.

K-State won seven of its final nine games in 2020, including taking three of four games at perennial power Stanford.

In Wates' initial campaign at K-State, the Wildcats earned their first bid to the Big 12 Baseball Championship since 2016 after an eight-place finish in the Big 12 standings (25-33, 8-16 Big 12).

Under the guidance of Wates, the K-State offense registered 54 home runs in 58 games in 2019 - its highest single-season output since 2009. Six Wildcats hit at least five home runs, led by Chris Ceballos and Phillips each with 10. Phillips' 10 homers set a K-State record for a freshman, breaking the previous mark of seven homers set by Brian Culp (1990) and Todd Fereday (1994).

Wates' first season also saw junior Will Brennan drafted by the Cleveland Indians in the eighth round (No. 250 overall) of the 2019 MLB Draft. Brennan was the nation's toughest hitter to strike out in 2019 at 18.6 at-bats per strikeout. Brennan led the Big 12 in the statistical category for three straight seasons and finished his career with a .332 batting average.

Wates, who played under Hughes at Virginia Tech from 2007-10, spent the previous two seasons working for the Seattle Mariners as an area scout in South Texas. Wates has built strong relationships in the region that will have an instant impact on recruiting.

With the Mariners, Wates was responsible for identifying and evaluating prospective players at both the collegiate and high school levels in the South Texas region. In the 2018 MLB Draft, Seattle selected two players from his area, including right-handed pitcher Nolan Hoffman (5th round) from Texas A&M and Rice outfielder Cody Staab (30th round).

Wates was a third-round selection (No. 90 overall) by the Houston Astros in the 2010 First-Year Player Draft following his junior year. In three seasons for the Hokies, Wates had a career average of .367 while leading the team in steals all three seasons, totaling 49 career steals.

The 6-foot-1 utility player hit 15 home runs and drove in 129 runs in his time with VT and was a preseason all-America selection in 2010 by both Baseball America and Collegiate Baseball, helping the Hokies to an NCAA Regional berth in 2010 - their first since 2000.

In six seasons in the minor leagues, Wates had a career slash line of .288/.362/.391 to go with 19 homers and 199 RBI. He quickly climbed the minor-league ladder, as he spent his last three professional seasons at the Triple-A level, both in the Astros (Oklahoma City) and Miami Marlins (New Orleans) organizations. In 2014, he was named the Pacific Coast League's Best Baserunner after leading the league with 37 stolen bases. Wates was also named a Class-AA All-Star in 2012 while with Corpus Christi.

Additionally, Wates was the head coach for the 14U Austin Horns Baseball Club in Austin, Texas, from 2016-18.

A native of Richmond, Virginia, Wates completed his Bachelor of Science in Sociology from Virginia Tech in December of 2017. Wates and his wife, Christine, have one daughter, Grace, and two sons, Carter, and Walker.

He transferred to Nicholls State and led the Colonels with six saves and 20 relief appearances in 2006. He boasted a 4.43 ERA (10 ER, 20.1 IP) and 20 strikeouts in his senior season before being drafted by the Detroit Tigers in the 32nd round of the 2006 MLB First-Year Player Draft.

Following his professional career, Darrow returned to his alma mater in 2010 as Nicholls State's volunteer assistant and was promoted to assistant and pitching coach in 2011. The Colonels lowered their team ERA in each of Darrow's four seasons, as their 4.18 earned run average in 2013 was the program's lowest in 15 seasons.

In 2012, Nicholls State led the Southland Conference with a 2.08 strikeout-to-walk ratio (323 strikeouts, 156 walks). Additionally, he tutored the Colonels' second highest draft pick in program history, as Brad Delatte was selected in the fifth round of the 2012 MLB Draft by the Toronto Blue Jays.

After a two-year stint as an assistant coach at Norman North High School (Oklahoma) that included a school-record 2.49 ERA in 2015, he joined Hughes' staff at Oklahoma in 2016 as the volunteer assistant and recruiting coordinator. He helped the Sooners to a 30-27-1 record in which they boasted a 4.41 team ERA. Additionally, he played an integral role in bringing the 2017 recruiting class to Norman, who aided the Sooners' run to the NCAA Louisville Regional that year.

Darrow and Hughes saw three Sooner arms taken in the 2016 MLB Draft: Alec Hansen (2nd round, Chicago White Sox), Jake Elliott (15th round, Chicago White Sox) and Alex Daniele (19th round, Texas Rangers).

Additionally, Kyle Arjona inked an undrafted free-agent contract with the Philadelphia Phillies after the 2018 Draft and reached the Triple-A level.

Martin highlighted three first-team all-Southland Conference selections in Darrow's tenure at New Orleans. Martin, the 2019 Southland Conference Relief Pitcher of the Year, earned first-team honors that season as well as Semple in 2017 and Warzek in 2018.

Darrow returned to his home state of Oklahoma, as he joined Central Oklahoma (Division II) as assistant and pitching coach in the fall of 2019. He led the Bronchos to a 17-3 record before the 2020 season was cut short due to the coronavirus pandemic.

UCO's pitching staff was fourth in the nation with 11.9 strikeouts per nine innings when the season ended, compiling 235 strikeouts while three Broncho pitchers had a 0.00 ERA and 10 hurlers held a sub-4.00 earned run average.

A native of Perkins, Oklahoma, Darrow graduated from Nicholls State University in 2006 with a bachelor's degree in general studies. He received his associate's degree in liberal arts from Labette Community College in 2004.

Dr. Richard H. Linton serves as the 15th president of Kansas State University. He holds a bachelor's degree in biology, a master's degree in food science and a doctorate in food science, all from Virginia Tech University. He participated in the Food Systems Leadership Institute from 2009-2011 and completed the Harvard Graduate School's Institutional Educational Management Program in 2018.

Before coming to K-State in February 2022, Linton served as dean of the College of Agriculture and Life Sciences at North Carolina State University from 2012-2022, as department chair of food science and technology at The Ohio State University from 2011-2012, and as a faculty member of the department of food science at Purdue University from 1994-2011. While at Purdue, Linton also served as the founder and director of the Center for Food Safety Engineering and as the associate director of agricultural research programs.

As dean of the College of Agriculture and Life Sciences, or CALS, at NC State, Linton led a college of over 300 faculty, with more than 3,000 undergraduate students and 1,000 graduate students. Under his direction, the college developed a new strategic plan focused on building people, programs and partnerships.

Collaboration with industry and government were critical to the mission of the college, and Linton's dedication was demonstrated through the NC Plant Sciences Initiative and the NC Food Processing and Manufacturing Initiative, two endeavors that have the potential to create jobs, find solutions to global challenges in agriculture and foster support for local growers. During his tenure at NC State, competitive research for CALS reached $100 million a year and his college raised $482 million for the NC State Capital Campaign.

Linton held many important leadership roles in addition to serving as dean. He continues to serve as a member of the Food and Drug Administration's Science Advisory Board, as well as the chair for the Binational — Israel/U.S. — Ag Research and Development Fund, a role to which he was appointed in 2018 by the U.S. secretary of agriculture. He also previously chaired the North Carolina Governor's Task Force on Food Manufacturing and the APLU-Healthy Food Systems, Healthy People Steering Committee.

President Linton and his wife, Sally, an ADHD/executive function life coach, have two children: a daughter, Lily, and a son, Chris.

Gene Taylor's K-State program took the college athletics world by storm in 2022-23 as Chris Klieman's football team won the 2022 Big 12 Championship and played in the Allstate Sugar Bowl, and Big 12 Coach of the Year Jerome Tang and his men's basketball squad made a remarkable run to the Elite Eight following a preseason poll that picked the Wildcats to finish last in the league. Both coaches were hired at K-State by Taylor, who was also named the 2022-23 Cushman & Wakefield FBS AD of the Year following a record year.

A member of the College Football Playoff Selection Committee and the LEAD1 Board of Directors, Taylor was named the Director of Athletics at K-State in April 2017. During his tenure K-State has seen the football program qualify for four bowls and win the 2022 Big 12 Championship, the men's basketball team win a Big 12 Championship, earn an Elite 8 appearance and advance to two NCAA tournaments and the women's track and field team win back-to-back Big 12 Outdoor championships.

Additionally, Taylor and staff have fundraised and begun to implement a department-wide facility master plan that will benefit all Wildcat teams including the newly completed baseball and soccer projects in addition to Building Champions, a $126.5 million initiative focused on the South End Zone of Bill Snyder Family Stadium, the new Morgan Family Arena for volleyball, an Olympic training Center and the Shamrock Practice Facility for football.

Taylor, who named the eighth-best Athletic Director among FBS programs by Stadium in 2020, has implemented a strategic plan for the department which places an emphasis on the student-athlete experience, while his leadership in navigating the COVID-19 crisis, in addition to enhancing the department's already-strong diversity and inclusion program, has been well documented.

With the support of fans and donors, K-State Athletics has also continued to be financially self-sufficient and does not receive support from the university. In FY 2019, a year earlier than anticipated, the program ended the practice of receiving student privilege fees in support of the program. This move makes Taylor's program one of eight across the country to operate with no direct or indirect university and student funding or state support.

In addition to achieving a budget surplus for the ninth, 10th, 11th and 12th straight years, overall pledges and cash gifts to the department during the 2022 fiscal year totaled a record $58.9 million, of which $20.4 million was designated for the Ahearn Fund annual giving program and surpassing its budgeted goal previous record of $18.9 Million in FY19. Included in the $20.4 million in annual giving was a department record $801,000 raised during the Powercat Auction. The department also received $42.6 million in cash giving, marking only the third time in history it has eclipsed the $40 million mark.

Hiring and retaining top coaches is also a critical function of the program. Taylor hired Klieman to replace hall of fame coach Bill Snyder after winning four national titles in five seasons at North Dakota State, and in year four led the Wildcats to a Big 12 Championship. Taylor also hired Tang to lead the men's basketball program, Jordan Smith to take over the tennis program and Pete Hughes in baseball, who took the Wildcats back to the Big 12 Championship in his first year on the job.

Graduating student-athletes remains the top priority for the department and academic success has continued under Taylor's guidance as K-State continues to rank among the top schools in the Big 12 in APR and graduation success rate.

Taylor is a 1980 business management graduate of Arizona State, and he received his master's degree in sports administration in 1985 from St. Thomas University in Florida. He worked in the ticket office at Southern Methodist University in 1985-86 before joining the Naval Academy. His tenure at Navy included serving as the commissioner of the five-team Collegiate Sprint Football League that includes Army, Navy, Penn, Princeton and Cornell. He served 13 years as Athletics Director at North Dakota State before being named Deputy AD at Iowa in 2014.

Taylor and his wife, Cathy, have a daughter, Casey, and a son, Jared.

BIG 12 CONFERENCE

The Big 12 enters its 28th year as one of the nation's premier athletic conferences under the direction of Commissioner Brett Yormark. In his brief time at the helm, Yormark has elevated the Conference to new heights, placing an emphasis on marketing, brand building and storytelling that has resonated across the college athletics landscape.

The Big 12 is comprised of 14 institutions after welcoming BYU, UCF, Cincinnati and Houston on July 1, 2023. TCU and West Virginia were the first new additions since inception when they joined the league on July 1, 2012. Baylor, Iowa State, Kansas, Kansas State, Oklahoma, Oklahoma State, Texas and Texas Tech are legacy members.

In the first year of his tenure, Yormark executed a media rights deal with ESPN and Fox that will run through 2030-31 while leading a revamp of the Big 12 Football and Basketball Championships that resulted in revenue and digital engagement highs. He has taken an innovative approach to ensure the Conference resides in places it has never been before including creating the first Big 12 Business Advisory Board. Other highlights are executing a partnership with the National Football League to operate a conference-wide Pro Day, teaming up with New York City Parks Department for a summer activation at historic Rucker Park, and bringing celebrity talent such as Fat Joe, Ashanti, Shaq and DJ Khaled into the Big 12 marketing fold. "Big 12 Homecoming" will debut during the 2023 football season at the four new members' campuses with additional conference members featured in future seasons.

The 2022-23 academic year saw the Conference reach new frontiers with TCU becoming the first league school to reach the College Football Playoff National Championship game. Texas captured the NCAA Women's Volleyball title as well as the Women's Outdoor Track & Field national championship. Oklahoma earned its second straight NCAA Women's Gymnastics trophy and was crowned Women's College World Series champions for the third consecutive season. NCAA Championship runner-up finishes were notched by Oklahoma State Men's Cross Country, Texas Women's Swimming & Diving and UT Women's Indoor Track & Field. NCAA individual titles were collected by 23 student-athletes. The Big 12 tied its own record as the only league to place 70 percent of men's basketball teams in the NCAA Championship and 80 percent of football squads in bowl games in the same academic year, also accomplishing the feat in 2017-18.

The Big 12 office is located in Irving, Texas.

Home of 81 NCAA team titles and 742 individual national championships (As of July 1, 2023).

Big 12 institutions create a league that encompasses eight states, three time zones and a combined population of over 79.3 million.

The league sponsors 23 sports. Men's squads include baseball, basketball, cross country, football, golf, indoor track & field, outdoor track & field, swimming & diving, tennis and wrestling. Women's teams are fielded in basketball, cross country, equestrian, golf, gymnastics, indoor track & field, outdoor track & field, rowing, soccer, softball, swimming & diving, tennis and volleyball.

The Conference currently conducts postseason championships for 22 of its 23 sports.

Entering the 2023-24 academic year, the Big 12 has over 800 Academic All-America recipients.

National academic accolades have always been strong in the Big 12. Charlie Kolar (Iowa State) was the recipient of the 2021 William V. Campbell Trophy, known as the Academic Heisman. He is the Big 12's fifth honoree since 2000. Since 1996, the Big 12 has 14 recipients of the NCAA Today's Top 10 award. This prestigious honor recognizes former student-athletes for their success on the fields and courts, in the classroom and in the community. In the last 13 seasons, 27 student-athletes were recipients of the NCAA Elite 90 award, including Meilin Sullivan (Oklahoma gymnastics) and Luke Savage (TCU baseball) in 2023.

Big 12 Commissioner Brett Yormark announced the formation of a Business Advisory Board to collaborate and help co-author the Conference's business strategy. The Board is comprised of some of the most successful leaders from a variety of fields - entertainment, finance, consumer brands, technology, media and more - that bring a wealth of knowledge and expertise in building global brands and dynamic businesses.

2024 PHILLIPS 66 BIG 12 BASEBALL CHAMPIONSHIP

May 21-25 | Globe Life Field | Arlington, Texas

The 2024 Phillips 66 Big 12 Baseball Championship will be held at Globe Life Field in Arlington, Texas, May 21-25, for the third consecutive year.

Globe Life Field is the new home to the Texas Rangers, opening in March or 2020. Under the current agreement, Globe Life Field will host the Phillips 66 Big 12 Baseball Championship for the next three seasons.

The 2024 season will mark the fifth Big 12 Baseball Championship to be played in Arlington, as the 2002 and 2004 postseason tournaments were held at the Rangers' former stadium, The Ballpark in Arlington.

Oklahoma City had hosted the Big 12 Baseball Championship 21 times Oklahoma City following the 2021 campaign. Other venues that have sponsored the championship include All-Sports Stadium, Oklahoma City (1997) and ONEOK Field in Tulsa (2015).

Past postseason championship winners include Baylor (2018), Kansas (2006), Missouri (2012), Nebraska (1999-2001, '05), Oklahoma (1997, 2013), Oklahoma State (2004, '17, '19), TCU (2014, '16, 21), Texas (2002-03, '08- '09, '15), Texas A&M (2007, '10-11) and Texas Tech (1998).

CHAMPIONSHIP FORMAT

The ten teams with the best conference records (based on winning percentage) in regular season competition will qualify for the Phillips 66 Big 12 Championship -- a two-division, double-elimination format.

In the event of a tie or ties in the standings, the following tiebreaking system will be implemented.

(a) If two teams are tied, head-to-head competition will be used to break a tie.

(b) If two teams remain tied, the winner of the first game of the Conference series between the two tied teams will be used.

(c) If two teams remain tied, there will be a comparison of the records of the tied teams against the highest place team(s) in descending order from top to bottom until the tie is broken; or,

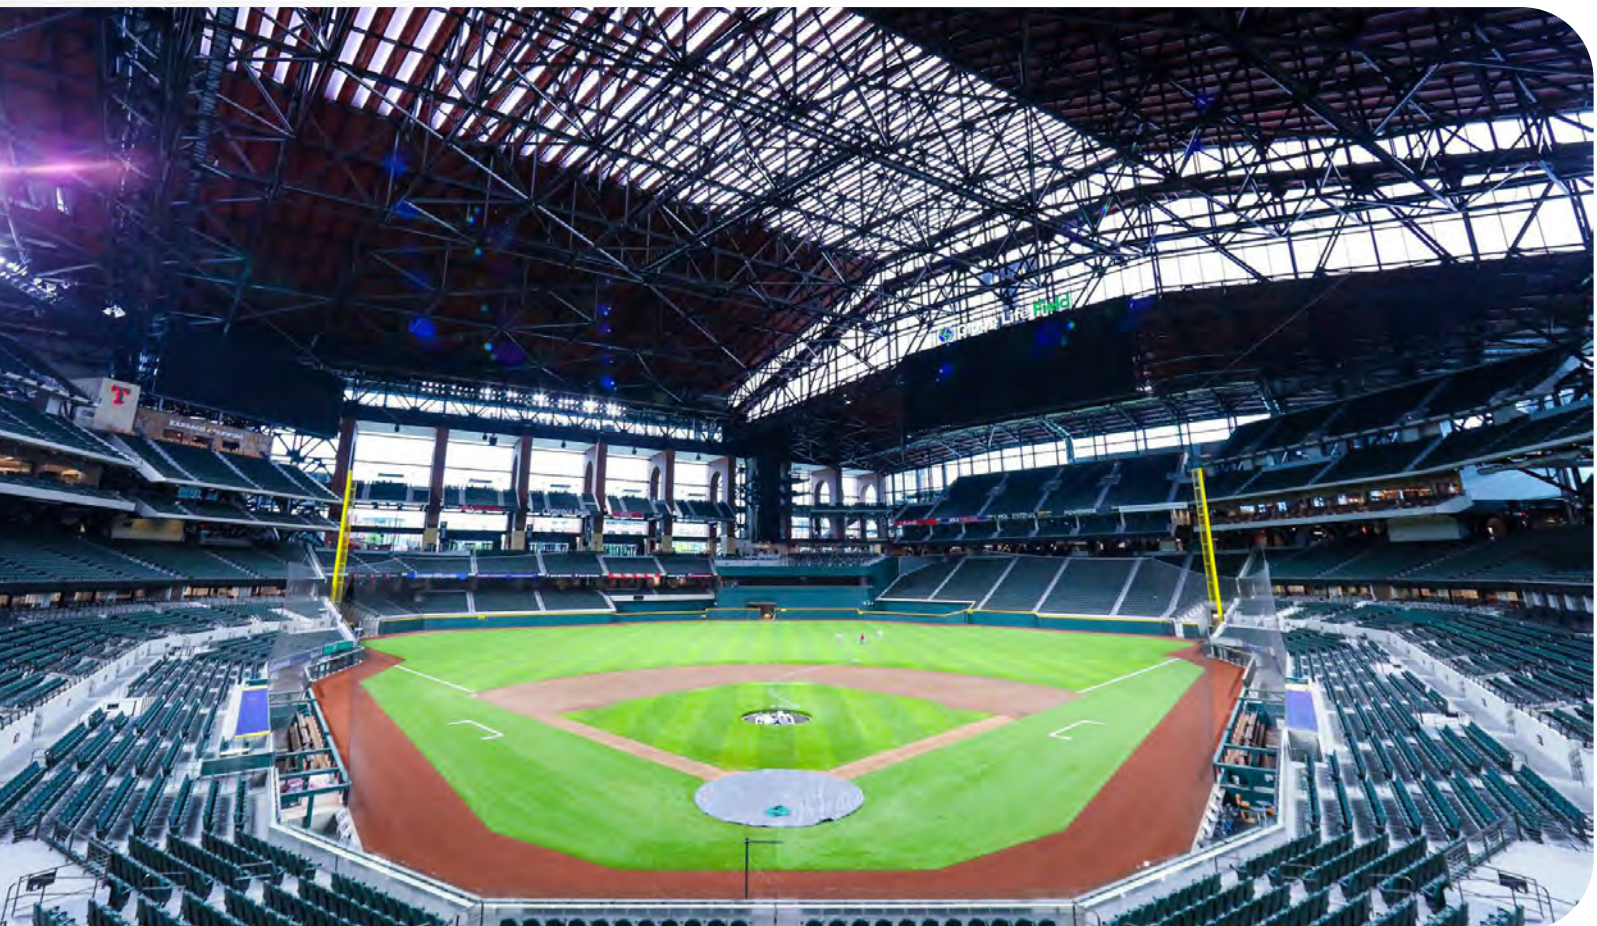

(d) If two teams remain tied, there will be a drawing to determine the seed or qualification for the championship;

(e) If three or more teams are tied, there will be a comparison of head-to-head records in a 'mini round-robin' of tied teams, followed by steps (a), (b), (c), and (d). Once a team has been eliminated from a multi-team comparison, it is dropped from further comparisons.

The Phillips 66 Big 12 Championship winner earns the Big 12's automatic berth into the NCAA Championship field. If the event is terminated before completion, the highest remaining seed shall be the conference's automatic qualifier. In the event that the Championship cannot be completed in entirety, the highest-seeded team of those remaining will be declared the automatic qualifier, regardless of when the Championship terminated.

CATS ADVANCE TO FIRST BIG 12 TOURNAMENT [2002]

May 12, 2002: After winning the first two games against Missouri, a rainout on Sunday gave the Wildcats their first trip to the Big 12 Tournament after three years of heartbreaking close calls. In its first postseason trip since the 1996 season, Kansas State proved its medal against the best, overcoming a 12-inning loss to nationally-ranked Texas Tech in the opening game to post back-to-back upsets of nationally-ranked Baylor and the Red Raiders before losing to eventual tournament runner-up Nebraska in the semifinals. With the win over Texas Tech, K-State achieved a 30-win season for the ninth time in school history and for the first time since 1997.

May 21-25, 2008: Kansas State, playing in just its second-ever Big 12 Championship, traveled to Bricktown Ballpark winners of its last three games. The Wildcats kept the momentum going as they defeated No. 6 Oklahoma State, 3-2, to open the tournament, but then lost to No. 7 Nebraska, 5-2. On Saturday, Nebraska dropped its game to Oklahoma State, which meant K-State needed to defeat Baylor to advance. The Cats, down 2-1 in the bottom of the sixth, scored a pair of runs and held on down the stretch to move on to the program's first title game appearance.

CATS SET SEASON MARK FOR WINS, EARN FIRST NCAA TOURNAMENT BERTH [2009]

May 29-June 1, 2009: Kansas State recorded its most successful season in school history by winning a program-record 43 games and earned a spot in its first ever NCAA Regional. With the ultra-successful season, the Wildcats were ticketed to Reckling Park on the campus of Rice University for its first ever regional. The Wildcats won its first regional game, a 16-8 victory over Xavier. Kansas State then faced host school and No. 6 ranked Rice in what could be labeled the biggest win in program history when the Wildcats topped the Owls, 7-6, to advance to the regional final. And although the Cats dropped the next two games to end the season, the Wildcats can look back at the 2009 campaign as the one that reset the bar in terms on success in baseball at Kansas State.

HILL, MORRIS GRAB NATIONAL HONORS [2009]

Head coach Brad Hill earned Big 12 Coach of the Year honors, becoming the first Kansas State coach since Mike Clark in 1990 to be named conference coach of the year. The Wildcats also earned their highest ranking in school history as they were No. 10 in the Baseball America Top 25 earlier in the season. Junior right-handed pitcher A.J. Morris was named the Big 12 Pitcher of the Year and was the school's first ever consensus All-American after setting the school record with 14 victories and the seventh-lowest ERA at 2.09.

K-State also recorded its highest ever finish in Big 12 play as it finished third and tied the school record with 14 conference victories. Leading the way for K-State was sophomore Nick Martini, who was named the Big 12 Player of the Year. The outfielder also earned second team All-America honors as he led the Big 12 with a .416 batting average - which was tied for fifth in school history - and he also led the league in conference-only games with a .433 mark - the eighth-highest mark in Big 12 history.

K-STATE SELECTED FOR THIRD STRAIGHT SEASON [2011]

The Wildcats advanced to their third straight and third-ever NCAA Regional when they were an at-large selection yet again. The streak included a three-game sweep of Kansas as the Wildcats improved their record against the Jayhawks to 15-3 over the previous 18 meetings.

A SEASON OF RECORDS AND FIRSTS [2013]

K-State embarked on a run no Wildcat team had seen before. In the first game of a home series against Oklahoma in mid-May, the Wildcats captured their first Big 12 title in program history - which was also the first conference title for K-State baseball in 80 years. The Wildcats hosted their first Regional at Tointon Family Stadium and advanced to the program's first Super Regional. The season was ended in game three of the Super Regional at Oregon State, but the Wildcats still managed to win 45 games - the most in school history. K-State also set program-bests in several categories, including hits (708) and saves (19).

K-STATE DOMINATES ALL-BIG 12 AWARDS [2013]

Junior second baseman Ross Kivett was named Big 12 Player of the Year, highlighting a program-record seven players on the All-Big 12 First Team. Brad Hill garnered his second career Big 12 Coach of the Year award while freshman relief pitcher Jake Matthis was named Big 12 Freshman of the Year.

After missing the Big 12 Baseball Championship in 2014 and featuring a roster of 22 newcomers, K-State returned to the Big 12's postseason tournament after finishing sixth in the conference standings. Key series wins over No. 3 TCU in Manhattan and at Baylor (a program first) helped catapult K-State beyond the regular season.

RIGLER TOSSES NO-NO [2017]

In a 14-0 win over Eastern Illinois on March 5, senior LHP Parker Rigler threw K-State's ninth-ever no-hitter and first since 1991. Rigler struck out six Panthers on 103 pitches to record the Wildcats' first nine-inning no-hitter by one player.

A SEASON CUT SHORT [2020]

After just 17 games, the Wildcats' 2020 campaign was cut short due to the COVID-19 (coronavirus) outbreak. K-State had a record of 10-7, including road series victory over Stanford, before all Division I spring sports were cancelled due to public health concerns.

BIG STRIDES IN HUGHES' 3RD YEAR [2021]

In Coach Hughes' third season, the Wildcats made a run to the semifinal round of the Phillips 66 Big 12 Baseball Championship - their longest run since reaching the title game in 2008. K-State finished the season with a 34-23 record for its highest win total since 2013 (45). Additionally, the Cats launched a program-record 89 home runs, led by Dylan Phillips' 16, while the pitching staff shattered the single-season record with 541 strikeouts. Jordan Wicks set both the single season and career strikeout records on his way to becoming K-State's highest MLB Draft selection by the Chicago Cubs (Round 1, Pick 21).

CATS GO BACK-TO-BACK [2022]

The Wildcats made their second straight run in the semifinal round of the Phillips 66 Big 12 Championship, finishing the season 29-29. In Coach Hughes' fourth season at the helm, K-State launched the program's second most home runs with 84 which ranked third in the league. Dylan Phillips, Blake Adams and Dominic Johnson were selected in the MLB's First-Year Player Draft, bringing the Wildcats draft total to 125.

ONE STEP CLOSER [2023]

K-State turned in a 35-24 mark, its highest win total since posting 45 in 2013, including a program record 14 road victories. Hughes guided the Wildcats to their first Big 12 series sweep since 2013 with the program's first home sweep over Oklahoma since 1990. The 2023 team was one of just three teams in the country that walked over 300 times, hit over 75 home runs, and stole over 100 bases. Tyson Neighbors became the first Wildcat in school history to earn consensus All-American status, while Neighbors and Kaelen Culpepper represented K-State as members of Team USA on the Collegiate National Team. Seven players collected All-Big 12 accolades. K-State was just the second team out from being selected to the NCAA Tournament, finishing with an RPI of 54.

ALL-CENTURY TEAM

In celebration of 100 years of K-State Baseball in 2000, the university named 21 former players to the All-Century Baseball Team as voted on by a select group of head coaches and letterwinners. The group included five Major League players, five that received recognition to 10 All-America teams and 15 players that earned first team, second team or honorable mention honors a total of 30 times in their careers at K-State. The honorees came from nearly every decade that Kansas State fielded a baseball team, including one from each the 1930s, 1940s and 1950s, six from the 1960s, four from the 1970s, four from the 1980s and four from the 1990s. The list is broken down by position with six pitchers, one catcher, seven infielders and seven outfielders.

STEVE ANSON [1973-76; MISHAWAKA, IND.]

Four-year starter as a first baseman and outfielder for the Wildcats from 1973-76... Named first team All-Big Eight Conference as an outfielder in 1974... Ranks among K-State's Top 10 in six career categories, including at-bats (579), triples (19) and total bases (325)... Owns the career mark for triples with 19 in his four-year career... Led the team in hits and batting average each of his four seasons as a Wildcat... Posted an impressive senior year in 1976, hitting a team-high .356 in 54 games with team-bests in runs (45), hits (62), 2B (11), 3B (six) and RBI (48).

ELDEN AUKE [1930-32; NORCATUR, KAN.]

One of the greatest athletes in Kansas State history... Played football, basketball and baseball at Kansas State in the late 1920s and early 1930s and was selected as an All-American in all three sports... Upon graduation, he had offers to play both professional football and baseball, but chose baseball where he embarked on a 10-year major league career... Played with three different teams in his major league career, including the Detroit Tigers (1933-38), Boston Red Sox (1939) and St. Louis Cardinals (1940-42)... Saw action in 333 games in his major league career with 261 starts... Compiled a 130-101 career pitching record and 4.42 ERA with 126 complete games and 594 strikeouts in 1,963.1 innings pitched... Struck out the legendary Babe Ruth on four pitches in his first visit to venerable Yankee Stadium in New York... Elected to numerous Halls of Fame, including the state of Kansas and the inaugural Kansas State Sports Hall of Fame class in 1990... Named to Sports Illustrated's Top 50 greatest sports figures of the century in the state of Kansas... Auker passed away in Vero Beach, Fla., in 2006.

DAVID CHADD [1987-88; WICHITA, KAN.]

Two-year starter at first base for the Wildcats from 1987-88... Named second team All-America by both the American Baseball Coaches Association and Baseball America in 1988... First All-American at K-State for head coach Mike Clark... Earned first team All-Big Eight Conference honors in 1988... Owns the Kansas State career record for batting average with a .388 mark... Ranks among the school's Top 10 in four single-season records, including batting average (.418), hits (84), runs (66) and home runs (11)... Led the team his senior season in hits (84), runs (66), average (.418), while ranking second in doubles (18) and home runs (11)... Transferred from Barton County (Kan.) Community College in 1987... Currently a scout for the Detroit Tigers... Was a 2010 inductee to the Kansas Baseball Hall of Fame.

ELDEN AUKER (1910-2006)

Pitcher | 1933-42
Detroit Tigers
Boston Red Sox
St. Louis Browns

Taking it in stride. That expression pretty well describes Elden Auker's approach to life. He's had quite a life to handle, covering 87 years and enough significant achievements to fill many people's portfolios.

Auker played football, basketball and baseball at Kansas State in the late 1920s and early 1930s, and he was selected as an all-American in all three sports. After graduation, he had offers to play professional football and baseball. He chose baseball, and embarked on a 10-year major league career.

On his first visit to venerable Yankee Stadium in New York, the first batter he faced was none other than Babe Ruth, whom Auker struck out on four pitches. He also played with or against numerous other Hall of Famers in a career with the Detroit Tigers, Boston Red Sox and St. Louis Browns.

Even at age 88, Auker still was competitive, as can be attested by the fact that he played golf three times a week. In a sport in which it is every participant's goal to shoot his age, Auker has made a habit of it, recording the feat 20 times in a row at one point. And his exploits have earned fans of all ages and circles, including a former President of the United States, who came to Auker and asked if he remembered him.

It's just another day in the life of Elden Auker.

Auker grew up in Norcat, in northwest Kansas, where he was coached in football by Pete Peterson, an alum of the University of Nebraska. "He said, 'They'll get you a job if you'll go to Nebraska. I think you ought to go there,'" Auker said. "But I played in a basketball tournament in Norton against Almena, and we beat them, 10-9. (Those were the days when defense was everything.) I scored nine of the 10 points in that game. The referee in that game was Charley Corsault, the basketball and baseball coach at Kansas State.

"After the game he talked with me about going to Kansas State. He gave me quite a talk on it. He said, 'I'll get you a job. But I think you owe it to Kansas; you're a Kansas boy. If you go to Nebraska, you're not being loyal to your home state.' I was young and I thought a lot of Kansas, so I decided that was where I should go."

Among the sports he played at K-State, he liked football the best. "I just liked the physical contact, I guess," he said. He played quarterback and halfback on offense and safety on defense. "I got as far away from the action as I could on defense, but I got plenty of contact back there on punts and passes."

Despite all the success Auker had, his most vivid memories of his K-State playing days were two losses. In 1931, the Cats were 5-0 and bound for a possible berth in the Rose Bowl, the only postseason bowl game in existence at that time. They had won their first five games by a total score of 94-14, including three straight shutouts against Kansas, Oklahoma and West Virginia. But late in the contest against West Virginia, an injury to Ralph Graham, one of the other stars on that team, left the Wildcats short-handed.

The Cats lost their next two games, and Auker takes more than his share of the blame. "The third quarter of the Iowa State game was scoreless," he said. "I dropped back to punt (that was when the goal post was on the goal line) and I faked it. The end had been cutting in fast and almost blocked a couple of punts. So when he cut in, I faked a punt and ran 102 yards for a touchdown. That put us ahead 6-0. Henry Cronkite, who was doing the place kicking, missed the point after touchdown.

"In the fourth quarter I was playing safety. The guy got behind me and they threw a pass over my head for a touchdown. I tipped the ball, but the guy still caught it and fell over the goal line. They kicked the point and beat us 7-6. The Kansas City Star came out the next day and said, 'Auker hero and goat.' That's one I remember.

"The next game was against Nebraska. We had Nebraska beat, 3-0, with 27 seconds left to play. I punted a ball, trying to kick it out of bounds down the right-hand side of the field. Nebraska put in a little guy who caught it right on the sideline. The guys thought he was out of bounds, but he wasn't, and he ran 80 yards for a touchdown and they beat us, 6-3. Those two games I remember. I always remember those bad things. The good things are just kind of taken in stride, but those bad things, you never forget them."

Auker remembers a lot about his K-State days, even though they occurred more than 65 years ago. He recalls working his way through school cleaning a drug store for $1 a day. "In those days, they didn't pay you any money for signing," he said. "They gave athletes jobs. I got a job cleaning out the drug store every morning, sweeping it and mopping it. I did that for four years for $1 a day. And that got me through school. In those days, you could buy breakfast for 15 cents, dinner was about 35 cents. I worked in the harvest fields in the summertime and I pitched baseball and made a little money."

After graduation, he was offered a contract for $6,000 ($500 per game) by the Bears. "That was back in 1932 when times were tough," he said. "That was a lot of money."

In 1932, there was no Deion Sanders to follow and no agents to negotiate, and Auker was forced to make a choice. "I graduated on June 1 and went directly to Detroit," he recalled. "When I got there, I reported to Mr. Navin, who owned the Tigers. In our first conversation he said, 'I understand that you have an opportunity to play football this fall.' I said, 'Yes. I've been offered a contract with the Chicago Bears.'

"He said, 'We think you have the possibility of being a major-league pitcher, but before you come up here, we've got to send you to the minor leagues. We're going to have to invest money in training you and getting you ready for professional baseball.'"

Auker possessed a good fastball and a good curve. But a football injury to his shoulder prevented him from throwing overhand. His first manager in the minors, Bob Coleman, convinced him to try pitching underhand, instead of sidearmed. After practicing for awhile, Coleman told Auker he wanted to give him some game action so Auker was going to pitch nine innings, regardless of his performance. He pitched a shutout, winning 1-0, and never threw overhand again.

He made the majors the next year. His catcher that year with the Tigers, Ray Hayworth, still is living in North Carolina. Auker and Hayworth form the oldest living battery in baseball. Hayworth was behind the plate when Auker came to the mound in a relief role in Yankee Stadium to face Ruth. "Bucky Harris was our manager," Auker said. "He said to me, 'Elden, you go to the bullpen, and if I need you, I'll call you in.' We had a left-handed pitcher named Carl Fisher. He got into the third inning and got in trouble. So the phone rang, and they called me in from the bullpen. The hitter was Babe Ruth. I threw four pitches to him, and struck him out."

"I didn't think anything about it. All I was trying to do was get him out, and I went from there. I had to get him out before I could do anything else. I later played golf with him for a couple of years down in Florida. He was a good personal friend. He told me, 'I didn't like your style of pitching. It bothered me.'"

Auker also was friends with another Yankee Hall of Famer, Lou Gehrig. The two players often wrestled for fun in the common hallway between the two locker rooms at Fenway Park. Until one time when Auker caught Gehrig by surprise. "I grabbed him. Usually he just lifted you off the ground and you started just bear-hugging," he said. "This time, he just folded up. He said, 'Don't do that.' I helped him get up and said, 'What's the matter with you?' He said, 'I've got something wrong with me. I don't have any strength. I can't hit the ball out of the infield. I don't know what's wrong with me.' He said he had begun to notice it the previous winter. He had a lousy spring and by the time they got to Boston, he wasn't doing well at all. He played a couple of innings that day and he took himself out. Then the next day, he played a couple more innings, and took himself out. They went to Detroit, and that's when he left the team and went to the Mayo Clinic. That was the last time I saw him."

The list of former teammates — Ted Williams, Hank Greenberg, Mickey Cochrane — is a list of some of the all-time greats of the game.

In 1935, he opened the World Series against the Chicago Cubs and was interviewed by a young reporter from WHO in Des Moines, Iowa, named Ronald Reagan. Twenty-five years later, Reagan, then the governor of California asked Auker if he remembered him. "I thought he had it turned around, but he remembered interviewing me," Auker said.

Auker's athletic exploits are limited to the golf course these days, though he plays like someone much younger. His history has earned him a place in several Halls of Fame, including K-State's and the state of Kansas.

"I was the first member to be elected into the Kansas State Sports Hall of Fame," he said. "They hold a banquet whenever they have someone to go in, and Mrs. Auker and I always go. We have a great time. We don't see many old friends, because there are not many of them left, but we see some new friends that we've made."

Even the fact that he has outlived most of his contemporaries doesn't bother Auker. He just takes it all in stride.
